of China on the dispute and its claim on India's vast territories including state of Arunachal Pradesh on the eve of Prime Minister's visit;

(c) whether the question of border dispute came up for discussion between high level Indian delegation led by Shri K.P.S. Menon, and Chinese leaders in view of Prime Minister's willingness to visit China; and

(d) if so, what is the outcome of the visit of above delegation with reference to border dispute and whether Prime Minister would discuss the problem with the Chinese leaders regarding need for vacating the Indian territory occupied by China?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI P. V. NARASIMHA RAO): (a) Yes, Sir. Details are being worked out.

(b) No, Sir.

(c) Yes, Sir.

(d) The delegation visited China to make preparations for the Prime Minister's visit. The border issue came up as a subject that would be discussed during the visit. Obviously, the Prime Minister will present the country's stand when the issue is discussed.

Declaration of cease-fire in Sri Lanka by India

103. SHRI V. GOPALSAMY:

SHRI T. R BALU:

Will the Minister of EXTERNAL AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

(a) what were the reasons for the declaration of cease-fire initially for five days in Sri Lanka by the Government of India on 14th September, 1988 and for what reasons it was extended for another five days;

(b) what were the suggestions and proposals placed before the Tamil militants alongwith the cease-fire; and

(c) what are the reasons for which the operations of the IPKF were resumed?

THE MINISTER OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI P. V. NARASIMHA RAO): (a) Initially to give all Tamil groups a chance to participate in the elections to the North-Eastern Province. Extended at the request of some Tamil citizens of Sri Lanka who claimed that this would evoke a positive response from the LTTE.

(b) All militant groups who wished to participate in the elections were invited to lay down their arms, extended support to the Indo-Sri Lanka agreement and take part in the elections.

(c) LTTE's continued obduracy and its efforts to take advantage of the cease-fire to regroup and to extort 'taxes' from the people of the North and the East.
